robberies aie committed, the Lieutenants of every county, who have sufficient warrant by their commissions to execute martial law upon such offenders, are charged to appoint Provost Marshals for the apprehension of such notable offenders, and to commit them to prison thereupon to be executed

MEASURES OF RELIEF FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

Every soldier on landing, having the passport of the Lieutenant General or any special officer of commandment, to be paid five shillings for his conduct to the place where he was levied Where there is no person of the Treasurer, the principal officer of the place to pay this sum immediately, which will be duly repaid by the Treasurer of Wars or the Council On payment of the conduct money, the passports of the soldier shall be retained and a new passport given for his travel allowing sufficient time by convenient journeys from the place of landing to the place of his first levy To be warned at the same time that if he lingers by the way in roguish manner or does not reach his former abode within the time limited, he shall be taken as a vagabond and punished according to the law

Btb November SOUTHWELL'S [c] MARY MAGDALEN'S FUNERAL TEARS '

Mary Magdalen's Funeral 7 ears [y] written as it Is said by Robert Southwell the Jesuit, though without his name inserted on the title-page, has been entered, wherein is expressed the sonowful thoughts and lamentations of Mary Magdalen at the Sepulchre of Christ, in the manner of the writers of romantic tales The author seeing how the finest wits are now given to write pas-sionate discourses hopeth by his book to woo them to make choice of such passions as it were neither shame to utter nor sm to feel

By examination of various Spaniards and Portuguese it appears that the King of Spain sustained very heavy losses this last summer Of the Nova Spama fleet of 52 ships but 33 returned to Havannah, there being 2600 lost in 19 sail, o£ the Terra Firma fleet only 23 ships came to Havannah, having lost some 3000 men As well as these 55, there met at Havannah 12 ships from S Domingo and 9 from Funduras, 77 in all, and set sail on